SALVATION ARMY P.R.O.

Major John Steele, Public relations Dept. Officer of The Salvation Army in Southern Alberta recently visited Vulcan to address the local Lions Club on the community services rendered by the Organization by its eight Alberta Institutions. He also conferred with the local Committee sponsoring the Annual Red Shield Appeal which is now being made. The Major is a veteran of two world wars and spent 5½ years overseas and in Canada, in Red Shield services to the Canadian Forces. He recently came to Alberta from British Columbia after three years service there as Senior Officer Pacific Command Red Shield Services and latterly as Public Relations Dept. Representative for Eastern B.C.

Lions Elect New Officers

Charles Fulton was elected president of the Vulcan Lions Club for the 1948-49 term at the annual meeting and election of officers held last week. He succeeds Keith Elder, who has served as president for the past year.

First vice-president will be C. H. Andrews and second vice-president Martin Gottenberg. G. A. Sales was re-elected as secretary-treasurer.

Other officers elected were: Earl Erickson, lion tamer; Chaucery Layman, tall twister. Directors for 1948-49 are Oliver Reid, A. G. Saxby, Gordon Clayton and Ross Walker.

Guest speaker at the meeting was John Steele, public relations officer for the Salvation Army in Southern Alberta, who outlined the work of his organization.

The club voted a donation of $100 for flood relief in British Columbia.

Review of Year's Activities Home and School Association

On reviewing the work of the Vulcan Home & School Association under the leadership of Mrs. P. Weber many things seem to have been accomplished during the year.

The Hallowe'en Shell-Out was very ably handled by members of the Association. Prizes to the extent of $18.80 including six swimming tickets were paid for and lunch was provided for all school children taking part.

A wool rug was bought to be used in case of sudden illness at the school.

Five dollars was sent to the Dr. Kerby Memorial Fund in Calgary. A donation of $3.20 was given towards High School pins.

A very successful membership tea was put on in October bringing the membership up to fifty-eight.

The Home and School catered for the lunch in connection with the Baseball's Father and Son banquet which realized over $50.00.

In November the members of the Ambitious

Abe Schenk decided to try a different breed of chickens this year and from the coast secured some chicks which are a cross between a Leghorn and a Hampshire.

These chicks have now reached the pullet stage with practically no loss and Mr. Schenk reports that one is showing great ambition, for, at the age of three months and three weeks, she has now laid her first egg.

This is an early age for any pullet to start producing and Mr. Schenk, and the Advocate, would like to know if this constitutes a record in the district.

Gains Place On Calgary Team

Glen Gorbous, youthful Vulcan baseball star, made his initial appearance with the Purity 99 team in Calgary last weekend and his work with the inter-city senior league team has already been the subject of favorable comment.

Glen made a smart debut in his first game by clouting two home runs and Tom Moore, in his Albertan sports column, makes this comment:

Purity 99 club seems to have a knack for picking up smart ball players right around home. While other teams in the circuit reached deep into California for players, Purity didn't go far out of Western Canada, leads the loop by a solid margin, came up last weekend with a youngster from Vulcan who made good almost instantly. He's 17-year-old Glen Gorbous who played junior at Drumheller a year ago, had to be rushed home Sunday night to write high school exams Monday, but in three games on Purity's third base looked like a natural ball player of future big league calibre. His throws to first and his home runs at bat made him an immediate success.

S.C. Candidate

Rev. Peter Dawson, M.L.A.

At the Social Credit nominating convention held in Vulcan last Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Peter Dawson, M.L.A. was the unanimous choice of the delegates as the Social Credit Candidate for Little Bow constituency. It is expected that a provincial election will be held this fall, probably in the month of August.

Mr. Dawson, who in private life is minister of the United Church at Champion, has represented this constituency in the provincial legislature since the Social Credit party went into power in 1935. He is speaker of the House in the legislative assembly.

Baseball-Softball Draws For July 1st Sports

Draws for the various ball tournaments being staged tomorrow (July 1st) at the Elks Celebration are have been made.

In the baseball tournaments, the feature attraction, Vulcan oppose Carmangay in the first game, at 1:00 o'clock. The second game starts at 3:30 between Champion and Barons and the final game is scheduled to begin at 6:00 p.m.

The men's softball tournament will see the Vulcan Grease Monkeys take the field against the Kirkcaldy Kittens at 10 a.m. and Berrywater is drawn against Alton at 12 o'clock noon. The final game will be at 4:00 o'clock.

Warning To All Motorists

Numerous complaints have been received by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and by the Office of the Attorney General with respect to the failure of drivers of motor vehicles to dim their lights when meeting oncoming traffic and also to comply with the provisions of the Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act and Regulations with respect to proper lighting equipment on their cars at night.

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police have been issuing warnings to motorists who have failed to comply with the provision of the Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act, but these warnings in many cases have been disregarded.

In view of the very dangerous conditions created by a failure to strictly comply with the provisions of the Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act and Regulations with respect to dimming of headlights and the prevalence of faulty lighting equipment on cars, it is now proposed that no further warnings be issued and if any person is found travelling on the highways in contravention of the provisions of the Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act and Regulations, a prosecution will be entered against the driver without further warning.

Pat Walker At Olympic Trials

Although he failed to qualify for the Canadian Olympic team in the recent trials at Winnipeg, Pat Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Walker of Vulcan, showed that he is one of Alberta's outstanding athletes when he qualified for the Winnipeg trials at the recent Polar Bear track and field meet at Edmonton.

In the Edmonton meet he topped the Olympic trial standards in three divisions—the discus throw, 200 metre and 400 metre dashes. He was also a member of the

Cubs Take Coveted Award For Second Consecutive Year

Friday afternoon of last week the First Vulcan Scouts, under Scoutmaster Percy Simpson, gathered their camping gear and rations and set off for the yearly Scout rally, held at the Okotoks park. A trailer was loaned by Merle Smith and with station wagon and trailer packed the boys left Vulcan at five o'clock.

They arrived at Okotoks park just in time to listen to the Louis-Walcott fight and when Walcott was safely disposed of the boys picked their camp-site and made camp. Following supper came a hike through the town of Okotoks and then to bed.

Seven o'clock saw the boys up and fires being made for the breakfast of hotcakes, bacon and eggs. Camp clean-up and inspection came next and a stew was prepared for dinner, using a fireless cooker so the stew would be ready when they returned to camp from an observation hike. Commissioner Betton led the Scouts on this hike, with High River and Vulcan Troops participating.

At 2 p.m. Saturday the program for Scouts and Cubs got under way with the march past and formation of the Cub circle and Scout horseshoe. The mayor of Okotoks ex-

Jim Colwell Dead; Farmed Here

Sam Colwell received the sad news on Monday that his brother, Jim Colwell, had passed away at Kincardine, Ontario, on Saturday, June 26, after a short illness. A resident of High River for the past few years, Mr. Colwell had gone to Kincardine early in June to look after another brother, Frank, who was ill.

Jim Colwell homesteaded in the Nanton district in the early days. He farmed west of Vulcan for several years before moving to the Blackie district in the 1920's and later to High River, and was well known throughout this part of the country. He was 78 years of age.

Mr. Colwell is survived by two sons, Clark at High River, and Jack, at Macleod; four brothers, Frank at Kincardine, Tom at Vancouver, William at Zion City, Illinois, and Sam, Vulcan; and one sister, Mabel, at Nanton. Also five grandchildren.

tended a hearty welcome to the Scouts and Cubs and competitions were then held for Scouts and Cubs, relative to their training, followed by sports events and supper.

The flag was lowered at 7 p.m. and a sing-song around a bonfire followed. The awards were presented to the winning troops and packs.

The Vulcan Cub Pack, under Cubmaster Merle Robertson, was awarded "The Bone" for the second consecutive year. This award is emblematic of the best behavior and sportsmanship and it was the first time in the Foothills district that the award had been given to the same pack two consecutive years. A certificate was also presented for the accomplishment by the boys in the second Star Class, under the capable leadership of Tommy Chell, who also handled the boys in the Tenderpad First Star tests.

The Vulcan Scout Troop was awarded two proficiency certificates for the highest marks in Second Class tests and the observation hike.

Troops and Packs contesting were Brant-Ensign, High River Nos. 1 and 2, Nanton, Vulcan, and three troops from the oilfields. The local Scouts and Cubs are to be congratulated for their achievements at this rally.

The Weather

The weather turned much warmer over the weekend and only the occasional light shower of rain has been reported in the district the past few days. Crops are now making good growth but are very late and about two weeks of clear, warm weather would be welcomed.

Indicative of the phenomenal growth of fall-sown crops as a result of the abundant moisture this spring is a field of fall rye on the farm of W. T. Walker, ten miles west and five miles south of Vulcan. Mr. Walker brought a sample of this crop into town on Friday and the average height of the rye is over six feet. The large heads give promise of a better than average yield.

School News

Mervin Cook, Grade 2, and Raymond Cook, Grade 1, have left for Ponoka, where their father has been transferred by the C.P.R.

Miss Daisy Ann Chapman, a teacher from Eugene, Oregon who is now visiting her brother, J. R. Chapman, visited the Vulcan school this week and said it compared very favorably with the schools in Eugene.

During the long drawn-out examination sessions Harry LaRoche has been serving the teachers coffee twice a day—a much appreciated gesture.

In the provincial finals of the W.C.T.U. essay contest Vulcan students did exceptionally well. In the Grade 11-12 class, Donald Campbell won second prize, and in the Grade 9-10 class, Carol Arnold won first prize and Joan Buehler placed second. The essays were judged and awards announced at the W.C.T.U. convention recently held at Red Deer.

THE AMERICAN DRAFT: FAIR AND EFFICIENT

(An Editorial in the Calgary Herald)

The United States Congress has decided to bring the armed services up to a strength of more than 2,000,000 men. Since voluntary enlistment will not fill all the vacancies, a draft has been authorized. By it, young men of 19 to 25 years will be called for 21 months service.

How many men will be drafted depends upon enlistments. The services now have about 1,400,000 men under arms. This means that 600,000 men must be found, at least. But there will be retirements to consider, men who have completed their terms of service, who are over-age, or who are no longer physically fit. When these are added, the gap widens to an estimated 900,000 men.

On the other hand, the services expect re-enlistment to total 197,000, in round figures. Volunteers, they estimate, will account for another 440,000. (Congress authorized voluntary enlistment of 161,- 000 18-year-olds.) Reserve personnel, mostly officers, can supply 57,000. So the total to be drafted will range from 200,000 to 230,000, or about one in six of unmarried, non-veterans of draft age.

Provisions of the draft bill indicate that much more care will be taken in issuing call-ups than was the case during the war. Most veterans, for instance, will be exempt. The President is also authorized to defer "necessary men" in industry, agriculture, science and other fields. If they are, in his opinion, of more actual use to the country in their civilian pursuits, they will remain there in all probability. Married men and those with dependents may also be deferred.

Attention is being given to high school and university students. The former (if doing satisfactory class work) will not be drafted until they have completed their courses, or have reached 20 years of age. University students will be allowed to complete their year and, under the classification of "necessary men," it is quite probable that students doing senior or post-graduate work will be given further deferment. It is noteworthy, however, that both draftees and volunteers must go into reserve pools after completing active duty.

The essential thing is that the American draft is no longer haphazard. Men who can better prepare themselves for wartime service in study or research are to follow their own line of work. They will be available in an emergency to fill the many specialized positions which modern defense requires. On the other hand, sufficient men will receive military training to provide the nucleus of a much larger force. Their training will not be lost, because of their reserve status after service.

Altogether, the American draft seems a much more efficient system than Canada's spasmodic voluntary method. Certainly for defence purposes it is fairer and more workable.

VAST RESOURCES

Canada has, per head of population, more coal and lignite reserves, more potential water power, and more arable and other cultivated land than any other country.

Fire is the principal enemy of our forests.

WHEAT BOARD

The origin of the present Canadian Wheat Board can be traced back to the Board of Grain Supervisors established by Order in Council on June 11, 1917. This Board was set up when it became evident that the open market could no longer function satisfactorily in view of the growing importance of centralized wheat buying on the part of allied governments.

Wedding

Johnson — Noble

A wedding of interest in this district was solemnized at the United Church, Okotoks, on June 16, when Velma Marguerite, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Noble of Aldersyde became the bride of James Henry Charles Johnson, son of Mrs. Margaret Johnson and the late Henry Johnson. Rev. J. V. Howey officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin with nylon sheer yoke and long pointed sleeves. Her floor-length veil was caught with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Miss Mickie Noble accompanied her sister as bridesmaid and wore a gown of pink nylon lace with headress of blue and pink lilies. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and sweetpeas.

Graham Johnson, cousin of the groom, acted as best man, while the guests were ushered to their seat by Harold Mensinger and Donald Johnson.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Blue Room of the Church, which was decorated with pink and white streamers and white bells. The flowers were white and mauve lilies.

Following a honeymoon at Banff and Jasper the young couple will take up residence in Okotoks, where the groom has an electric and radio shop.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Fred Mensinger, Elwood and Harold Mensinger and Gordon Noble all of Vulcan; and Miss Lois Mensinger, Calgary.

U.F.W.A Conference of Macleod Riding Locals

Reports from locals, resolutions and addresses constituted two busy sessions for the U.F.W.A. of Macleod federal constituency who met at a conference in High River on June 21. Upward of 80 delegates and members were present from many parts of the constituency locals, contributing to the interesting discussions.

Mrs. Harry Douglas, director, presided at both sessions, and the guest speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. W. C. Taylor of Wainwright, second vice-president of the provincial U.F.W.A.

Resolutions

Resolutions coming before the meeting were related to many farm problems.

There was some discussion on the part to be played by women when the amalgamation of U.F.A. and A.F.U. is realized, in view of the fact that the A.F.U. has had no separate women's organization. Recognition of the importance of women's contribution to the farm movement was considered essential and must be safeguarded.

Another extensive discussion took place on pre-marital health tests and their ineffectiveness under present regulations.

A resolution which was approved pointed out that under present regulations marriage can take place before a reply is received as to negative or positive reactions to venereal disease test, therefore it was resolved that one month should elapse between tests and the issuance of the marriage license to enable one or more tests before marriage.

It was felt that this was one phase of the whole question of the alarming increase in divorce and disruption of family life. Although the government now gets out pamphlets for guidance in marital relationship, the problem is to bring this advice to the consideration of the young people.

P.F.A.A. — Red Bobs 222 Income Tax

Further resolutions discussed and carried for forwarding to the Central office and thence to the provincial convention included the following:

That kerosene refrigeration should not be regarded as a luxury but a farm necessity and that the government should remove the embargo.

Whereas the P.F. Assistance Act raises its funds from the products of the individual farmer when sold, but is only made available when large areas are shown to be dried out or haled out, it was resolved that the individual farmer having crop failure should come within the Act and be allowed fair settlement.

In respect to degrading of Red Bobs 222 it was pointed out that there is insufficient supply of wheat seed of suitable variety to replace Red Bobs therefore opposition was expressed to the degrading of Red Bobs 222.

A further wheat resolution was deferred for altered wording, but final payment on wheat for the five year pool period be not less than $2 per bushel in any one year for No. 1 N. Ft. William.

Tax-free income at minimum of $1500 and $3000 was called for on the ground that the present exemption of $750 and $1500 is absolutely inadequate. This resolution will be redrafted, and another resolution will ask further that the farm wife's exemption be raised from $200 to $750.

A.F.A. Membership

The A.F.A. is made up to 85% Co-operative representation and it is believed that the A.F.A. would be of more assistance to farmers if it had representatives from direct membership bodies. The request goes forward that the board of directors of the A.F.A. strive for more representation from direct farm groups.

The meeting favored a farmer owned co-operative meat packing plant and asked that everything be done to further such action.

A resolution protesting importation, manufacture or sale of margarine in Canada was tabled.

A resolution calling for deletion of the net worth section of the Income Tax form was left over; also a resolution protesting, price of commercial feed and poultry supplements in relation to egg and poultry prices.

Another matter which provided interesting discussion and on which the women felt strongly was the wife's right to will property jointly acquired. It was a firm conviction that a wife should have the right under law to will her third dower share as she wished in all property jointly acquired.

New 'Meteor' Is Announced

The Mercury and Lincoln division of Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited has announced that it will shortly introduce a brand new automobile in the low price field, to be known as the "Meteor". It will be exclusive to the Canadian market and will be distributed by the Mercury and Lincoln dealers across the Dominion.

In addition to the two-door Custom sedan shown above, the Meteor line will include the Custom four-door sedan and Club Coupe, as well as a deluxe series consisting of two-door and four-door sedans, Club Coupe and Business Coupe.

Described by the makers as "an incorporation of all our forward thinking from the standpoint of engineering, styling, safety and comfort", the Meteor presents a long, low silhouette, being less than five feet, three inches from the road to highest point. Its fullwidth body lines sweep back from a distinctive front grille and broad hood. Rear fenders are completely eliminated, the body design being such that maximum width is achieved for both front and rear seats as well as providing for a particularly spacious luggage locker at the rear. The seats are located in the comfort zone between front and rear wheels, the front seat being only slightly less than five feet in width and the rear a full 60 inches across the car.

The all-steel welded body is bolted to the frame at 22 points to form a solid unit. The frame is a box section type. It has five cross members and is of double-drop design making possible a particularly low centre of gravity and great rigidity.

All round visibility is a stand-out feature, the rear window alone being 88 per cent larger than that of the average automobile of former years. Narrow corner posts and centre pillars add to visibility without loss of body strength.

The Meteor will be available in colors and four two-tone combinations, completed by a fresh new choice of long-wearing broadcloth and mohair interior fabrics. Inside door handles pull up to open, eliminating the hazard of accidental opening while exterior handles are of the pull-out type with rotary latches.

The car has a newly designed, V-type eight-cylinder engine of 100 h.p. All engine accessories are "top-mounted" for easy servicing.

A symmetrical steering linkage combines with an advanced type of independent front wheel suspension and longitudinal springing at the rear to provide maximum stability. Airplane type hydraulic shock absorbers are located inside the soft action coil springs at the front and similar shock absorbers function at the rear. A feature of the longitudinal rear springs is the fact that they are so constructed as to eliminate the need for lubrication of the spring leaves.

The Meteor is equipped with a

Timely Pruning Of Shrubs

Spring and summer flowering shrubs should be pruned as soon as the bloom begins to fade and before seed pods develop. When pruned at this time seed production is reduced and new growth is not interfered with. The removal of old and unthrifty wood will leave more room for the new growth. If some shrubs such as lilacs are allowed to produce seed, it may reduce the size of next year's blooms, says F. V. Hutton, Experimental Farms Service, Dominion Department of Agriculture.

Commonly grown shrubs which should be summer pruned after blooming are all lilacs and most spirea. They will require little pruning other than the removal of dead or unthrifty wood until they have been growing in one location for two or three years, however. After this the stems may become crowded and the size and quality of the flowers may deteriorate. To keep the bush in good condition when they commence to crowd, about one-third of the old stems should be removed after blooming and an equal number of vigorous young shoots, properly spaced, be allowed to take their place. All small, weak and poorly spaced stems should be removed at this time.

In removing stems they should be cut off close to the ground or a main stem near the ground.

Do not tip prune expecting to remove dead or injured wood. With lilacs which may produce abundant seed and weaken the plant, all blooms which are not removed when pruning should be cut off just above the first leaves.

Shrubby roses, mockorange and many other flowering shrubs require little pruning and the removal of dead or injured wood will keep them in good condition.

special fresh air ventilation system. Two ducts carry fresh air from behind the grille, one inlet supplying air to the driver's side and the other to the passenger side. Each inlet is provided with a shut-off valve, actuated by a control knob on the dash, at either side of the steering column.

Yet another feature is the introduction of soft "black lighting" of instruments, reducing eye strain due to glare and reflection at night. The control instruments are grouped directly in front of the driver.

"PIONEER'S" ADDITIONAL PAYMENT ON OATS AND BARLEY

Some months ago we made an interim payment of 12 cents on oats and 10 cents on barley, and advised all customers that final payment would be made later.

Cheques are now in the hands of all agents for this final distribution. It will be appreciated if you will call and pick up your cheque.

This payment plus the initial interim payment makes a total of 13½¢ per bushel on oats, and 16½¢ per bushel on barley.

We are happy to announce that "Pioneer" customers are receiving more per bushel than the distribution made by any other Pool or Line elevator operators in Saskatchewan or Alberta.

IT PAYS TO PULL TO THE "PIONEER"

The Federal Government promised to make a payment to farmers on oats and barley, delivered at ceiling prices between August 1st and October 21st, 1947, after the Elevator Companies had made an adjustment. This has now been done and we therefore trust the Federal Government will implement its promise in the near future.
